

First Tee Monthly Donor Discount Program

The First Tee Donor Discounts is a program provided free of charge to all monthly recurring donors. There is no cost or subscription fee. You will not be listed on any database and receive solicitations from Merchants. This program is designed to thank you for supporting First Tee by delivering value back to our supporters and their families. The program offers discounts on a multitude of products, shopping services, travel, dining, entertainment and recreational activities across the country and worldwide.

Donors and their families who take advantage of these discounts can save more than the amount of their monthly donation while supporting the mission of First Tee!

Upon receipt of your first monthly donation, you will receive an email notification from First Tee that will contain instructions on how to sign in to realize your savings on the First Tee discounts in your everyday living for you and your family. Start saving today while supporting the work of First Tee to teach life skills through the game of golf!
